

DOMINIK SCHERRER

COMPOSER

As an extremely colourful and original composer, Dominik is now emerging as one of the most talented film composers of his generation. His recent scores include the supernatural love story Life Line, directed by Jamie Payne for the BBC, and the eerily haunting score for the new reworking of Dracula for Granada/BBC, which starred David Suchet and Marc Warren. Recently Dominik produced the score for the hugely successful Primeval (series 1 & 2). He is also currently scoring Agatha Christie's Marple (series 4)

In 2006 he wrote an eclectic score to the complex, dark and funny feature film Scenes Of A Sexual Nature starring Ewan McGregor, Hugh Bonneville, Gina McKee and Sophie Okonedo for Tin Pan Films. He wrote a wonderfully original score to the dark and twisted feature The Truth, which received rave reviews, and most recently completed the score to the feature Riprendimi (US title - "Good Bye Heartache"), which was accepted to premier in competition at the Sundance Film Festival. Other features include the award winning The Nine Lives of Tomas Katz (Strawberry Vale/UA) for which Dominik received the Best Music Award at Spain's Estapona Film Festival; the Italian comedy In Principio Erano Le Mutande (premiered at the Berlin Film Festival); Alice Through The Looking Glass (Projector/Channel 4), starring Kate Beckinsale and Ian Holm; and Appetite (Loud Mouse/J&M), starring Trevor Eve and Ute Lemper. Dominik also wrote the end title song for this film, sung by Ute Lemper, which featured in the album 'The Best of Ute Lemper' (the album reached No. 2 in the UK classical charts).

Dominik received great acclaim following the phenomenal success of his score to Agatha Christie's televised and re-vamped Miss Marple (ITV/WGBH), starring many of the most established actors working today. His music is full of life, illustrated by his amazing and colourful orchestrations and as a result he was awarded a Gold Medal for Best Original Music at The New York International TV Festival 2006 and has continued to create imaginative scores for series two and the forthcoming series three. He followed this with a wonderful period score to Jericho, starring Robert Lindsay as a 1950's detective and a contemporary score to the drama If I Had You.

Earlier TV credits include We Can Make You Talk (Tiger Aspect/History Channel NY), about the treatment of terrorist suspects in Guantanamo and Footprints (Tigerlilly Films), a documentary filmed in Afghanistan. Dominik also directed and scored a contemporary biker opera Hell For Leather, which has been shown at more than 60 film festivals. He is a member of Taxi Val Mentek, the avant-garde pop band/video art duo, and also composes performance music for the theatre, including Forkbeard Fantasy's Shooting Shakespeare, which has toured.
